She locked the door and went to her car. Do you know where she is heading to? The girl's name is Anna. Recently she finished her university. She was told that she was accepted for a new work in the company. For the first time when she heard about it for the first time she started crying because her life wasn't not easy. In the university she spent on studying for 10-12 hours a day. She was stressed out, overwhelming. She had mental issues. Literally, she fell in depression. I know that ~~he~~ is in care, but she was really scared of dropping out of the university. Anna got through a lot of things that we wouldn't do, but there were people who supported her, this made her not give up. This story showed we should not show our weakness. When Anna was accepted to a work in the company she was truly delighted. All the struggles was worth for the things she got through. She sat on the cash and went to her work. The point of the story is whatever happens you shouldn't give up.

It was one of the freezing Mondays in Moscow. She looked she down and went to her car. It was one of those freezing Mondays in Moscow. Oh God, I hope there is less snow than yesterday. I don't want to clean up everything again" - said she on the way to car. But despite her praying not only car, even the entrance to garage was closed by snow. She argued to whole world and decided to use his App. She showed that bus about 5 minutes away from station. She started to run but when she came bus just leaved. Yeah, it seems like "cartha" wants to play with her today. She already late to work. Whenever she is still have time before conference. To save her time she walked ~~to~~ in direction to work. After 20 minutes when she was far away from office ambulances ~~and~~ and police cars often ~~became~~ become often. As closer she get to work, as louder became screams. She switched to run. In the next turn the scene shocked her. A building was on fire. Her department was destroyed. Then police officer explained to her that gas had between bombed and 20 of her colleagues died. She realized that everything that happend in the morning saved her life. Next time when you'll think that you're most the one of the worse unlucky person think again may be you're the luckiest person.

Topic E

Do young people today make good use of their free time?

In my friends or other peoples at my age really use their time for the good things. We spend our times at studying, dancing, or watching something on our free times. We are people from z-generation we can create or do all of what we are imagine. Simple examples for that we are create a new technology cars like the solar cars or gyro energy station, but this from sciences side. In our inter normal life we would work with art objects like doing corridors, or paintings. If I have a lot free time now I will use them at the culture side or media side, cause I love spend my time at sing, or dancing and at the up sink video in the social media sites. But now we are also have people who can use their time for the good things I told before. They are procrastinate and spend their time in the bed or in the social medias with watching videos without working. I wish for this people will found their hobbies and would spend their time at the good missions.

"Do young people today make good use of their free time?"

For today, all young people spend free time without advantages. Now it's time with technology. So all people spend time for that. It's very bad for our mood and health.

I think, we should stop spend our time for computer games and mobile phones. Our lives going so fast. We should ~~stop spend our time~~ trying everything in this life. If you always play computer games, all the time for a day, you can have FOMO. Sure, it's not good for all people. Your eyes will looks badly, and it's unhealthy for your psychologic. You can haven't any hobbies or friends.

In my opinion, we should live in the real life. We should spend our free time for cheating with friends, our close peoples and spend it for our hobbies.

If we'd like to do it, we'll be happy and make good use of our free time.

Hi dear New York adventures!
 How are you doing? I hope you are doing well!
 I likely to ask you one questions re for that!
 had seen your advertising and it was great advertising I'm interested in your tours, so my question to you. How much does it cost is it expensive And do you have financial support-ship for supporting international students.
 In addition may I compare my family with me I don't want to visit to your country alone It's kind of dangerous. The most important questions is it possible to come USA. Our country going to ~~be~~ have lockdown. I will take test for covid 19 may I come? Moreover does your tour agent have supporting get visa?
 Besides when are you going to start program?
 If I will applied how that I come to USA the next ~~week~~ weekend. Need I take with my self anything for example: shall snowboard for skating or warm clothes. May I see replies previous years' coments?
 That's all my questions I will be glad if you give answers for my questions.
 Thanks, bye!

"Do young people today make good use of their free time?"

Our world or our country big. The world has a lot of people and children's. Free time - most important resurs. because, time is faster than airplane. I'm not kidding. for example: I live in Kazakhstan my time - my life. I understand that time is not big. Every weekend, every month, every year, it is time. I believe that, generally speaking kind, ambitious, intelligent people to let of...

I spent my time read a books, revise lessons, help house work and my mum, watch movies, e.g. I try spend my time healthy. Actually young people usually spend their time sitting on internet, different mobile, and computer games. I am student and young people and we must behave well, we are making new future, world believed to us. We are have been memories. My friend Gulzhibek. She is gorgeous girl. F.e: she is always study her exams. She has very big prouphant purpose. All of my friends good studied. Some they their free time was had slept, go to the course, talking, making cake, cooking. I proud theirs. I want to say that free time expensive most expensive. All young people, so lots of people thinking that they are lazy. I am agree. Anonymous that words, hardly knowing. I am said they are big ambitious and strong.

According to this question (Do young people today make good use of their free time?) I would answer in the following essay. Because, such kind of topics (questions) are very actual now. In my point of view, nowadays half percent of teenagers know what they want in real life, consequently they try to use free time just for new ideas or hobbies. Furthermore, they became read more books and do sports frequently. They aim to develop their thinking skills as well as they try to take part on a lot of competitions. Also they look watch comprehensive informations from internet (youtube) and learn enormous things in their free time. It is very good for future. Because, what teenagers do right now or in their free time is like mirror that show how our future will be.

However, all young generation do not use their time useful. The main reason, why they do not make good use of their free time, it is internet. The Tik Tok, instagram and other unnecessary games effect to us. Some of the, i mean teenagers spend time just going the unnecessary websites and not target about time. Also, person, who cannot control the time, then he cannot be active in social life.

To sum up I think now the number of young people who use their time for their future and for good things are increasing year after year.

In the modern world, nowadays, more and more young generation know how to use their free time. Actually, most young people are planning their schedule and greatly use time management. It is evident that these days children need to have wide range of activities to apply for good university or job. To begin, from my perspective, I richly believe that teenagers who are preparing for exams or have to do other essential things, they do not have spare time, because, young people also should have other interesting extracurriculars such as art, science or even sport. So, it can be seen that today young generation make good use of their free time.

By the way of conclusion, in my opinion children try to avoid procrastination. Moreover, they often focused on their future and plans. In addition, these days they have a lot of opportunities to grow in their career steps. For instance, they may work online while using the apps which are interesting for them, like bloggers or do moblogging works.

E. Do young people today make good use of their free time?

Free time is one of the relaxing time. People use free time true and false. It has its advantages and disadvantages. Some people even can't hear and see. Young people isn't use free time useful. Because, in the present time young people like playing computer games and sitting on the sofa watching TV and mobile phone. There is a few people that use their free time useful and important. For example, the boy found a job and travelled to USA, started his business. Also he worked with his friend together. He applied for jobs at Facebook or Instagram. In the present time, people can't develop themselves. They like spending time with telephone seeing Tiktok, Instagram, internet programms. Young people are becoming lazy. So in the world will not develop people. We must free time useful, not playing games and not sitting on the sofa. People should find job and travel. Also they should learn, only that they can live in the life. As so as people who lives and learn, also found his work they can become famous person. I want to say that we are young people. We are future of our parents. So we should pride of us and develop next!

Do young people today make good use of their free time?

Nowadays, spending a free time is a very common topic for all the people in the world and especially for teenagers. From my point of view, new generation is becoming more and more struggling with the issue connected with leisure time. But in my opinion today youngsters are intelligent and smart grateful for their capabilities to decide what to do in the free time. For example, my friends and classmates are very disciplined and self-control, so they do not use a smartphone full day, instead prepare for their exam and read a lot of books. In the morning they go to gym in order to workout and be in a good mood a full day. After that keep a healthy diet and eat very healthy and green food. They are all aware with the fact that high-produced or low-quality food is harmful for their stomach. I do believe that it is a very big advantage of new generation. As I have noticed, almost every teenage has their own hobby they can engage with and twice a week they visit art galleries and museums which means they really appreciate their free time and very creative people. Also they spend their time weekends with their families which enhance their social skills. In addition to that, from all the stress and study, they can have a break and go to the vacation with their friends for example, whenever I have some leisure time apart school I immediately pack my bag and go to countryside in order to fresh my mind. As well as, as I have noticed young people nowadays meditate or engage with yoga. Also they open their own business. This is a very good plus. As they can improve their skills and become a big famous people. But there can be some drawbacks. I mean some young people are watching TV or sitting on their phones in order to rest. They cannot develop and stay on the same place. And because of their laziness, they can't manage discipline and do not get good grades at school, which is means that not all young people spend their time usefully.

To conclude, I would say that young generation are very smart and spend their time very mindly. They can control themselves from harmful and always be tent to good habits like waking early, not using networks, not drinking alcohol and always be far from alcohol beverages and cigarettes so, I think old people should support youngsters and love them.

E) I think young people or teenagers use their free time better than in the past. More and more teenagers understand that time is one of the most important resources, and we should try to waste it, even if it's free. A lot of young people try to use it better, and have their own plans for all day or week, and I think it's great. What about me? I haven't a lot of free time as I wanted to, but if I have I try to do something that can be good for me in future, like study something or paint, sometimes play video games. It's important to understand that scrolling social network or playing is not bad wasting time especially if you like it and have fun. It's not important to be productive and end all things that you planned to do. Free time gave us to relax too, and only you will decide how to spend it.

The way of using free time main thing which shows how humanity became smarter and smarter.

Do young people today make good use of their free time? In my opinion, yes. Because young people nowadays are very smart and ~~can~~ know ~~to~~ use their time how to use your time. Children have many different hobbies that are very interesting and beneficial. They can spend their time studying or an improvement your skills. As I think, what young people today make good use their free time.

"Do young people today make good use of their free time?"

In my opinion it is very difficult question to answer it right now. Because, all of young people or teenagers are different. We can not say that all of them make good use of their free time. It would be inaccurate.

There are two types of young people. The first type is who never have free time. They are help other people, doing charities, studying, reading interesting books for them and etc. They don't check their phones every minute. And the second type of that category of people is people, who does not use their free time for good activities. The most of them prefer go online, search the internet, sit sleep. In short, they spend expensive time on social networks. They don't do useful things.

What about me? When I come back home from school, I haven't free time. I eat my lunch then start preparing homework. Cause of this I haven't free time since I go to 11th grade. But I know that it is good for me in the future.

In conclusion, we can see that all of us are very different.
